

I am an American citizen, born and bred. I love and support America. I oppose the requirement to provide the technical capability for wiretapping communications over the Internet. I believe that this capability is FAR too susceptible to abuse by governmental authorities. I do not believe that this capability offers sufficient benefit to warrant the attendant loss of privacy. I believe that this provision and others like it threaten our ability to innovate technologically and maintain our lead nationally in such innovation.